

reentry works.
Creating Employment Opportunities for Formerly Incarcerated San Franciscans
3rd Annual Reentry Summit
Safe Communities Reentry Council
Monday, September 29, 2008
Novellus Theater, Yerba Buena Center for the Arts

AGENDA

- 8:00AM Registration & Networking
See Milton Bowers' art, Rising Voices' quilt, the new 08/09 edition of the Getting Out & Staying Out resource guide, and share community resources in upstairs lobby.
- 9:00AM Opening Story & A Special Welcome: Vanessa Vega
Welcoming Remarks: Supervisor Ross Mirkarimi & District Attorney Kamala Harris
Overview of the Day: Public Defender Jeff Adachi
- 9:45AM On the Inside: What can prisons & jails do to better connect people to employment upon release?
Panel Moderator: Carolina Guzman, National Council on Crime and Delinquency
- Tarecq Amer, INSIGHT Center for Community Economic Development
 - Chief Patrick Boyd, San Francisco Adult Probation Department
 - Donnie Diego, Acrobat Staffing
 - Sheriff Michael Hennessey, San Francisco
 - Undersecretary Kathy Jett, California Department of Corrections & Rehabilitation
- 11:00AM Know Your Rights: How can we overcome employment barriers presented by having a criminal record?
- Simin Shamji, San Francisco Office of the Public Defender
 - Jessie Warner, National Employment Law Project
 - Hamdiyah Cook, All of Us or None
 - 2 former clients of Clean Slate and NELP
- 11:40AM Frank T. Williams performs "Street Life"
- 12:00PM Lunch in Yerba Buena Gardens
- 1:00PM Keynote Address: Nothing Stops a Bullet Like a Job
Joey Ray Lucero, Homeboy Industries, Los Angeles
- 1:50PM Performance by cast members of "Delinquent"
- 2:10PM On the Outside: How do employers benefit by hiring formerly incarcerated individuals?
Panel Moderator: Antoinette Davis, National Council on Crime and Delinquency
- Darnell Benson, No Violence Alliance (NoVA)
 - Josef Corbin, Corbin Building & Design
 - Bill Hancock, Flag-A-Cab Taxi School
 - DeJuan Redwood, Northern California Service League
 - Representative, Mayor's Office of Economic and Workforce Development
- 3:25PM Final Remarks & Acknowledgments: Public Defender Jeff Adachi
- 3:50PM Brianni Davis performs "Amazing"
- 4:00PM Program Ends